2. Primary Means of Communication and Expectations

- We will use our Slack channel for communication.
- All members are expected to read messages daily and respond within 12 hours.
- At least a reaction must be added to any announcements to indicate it has been read.

3. Scheduling Meetings

- Weekly meetings will be scheduled at Wednesdays 4-5pm, but meetings are subject to change.
- Team members must inform the group if unable to attend and update meeting notes beforehand.
- The project manager will send out meeting notes at least a day in advance for updates.
- Active participation in meetings is required.
- Meeting Structure:

- Notes document sent out beforehand.
- Each role has a subsection to discuss:
  - Previous week's accomplishments.
  - Plan for the coming week.
  - Any issues encountered/update issue tracker.
- Leader
  - Divide tasks for the upcoming week.
- Project Manager:
  - Backlogged issues.
  - Upcoming deadlines.

4. General Responsibilities for All Team Members

- Deadlines: Notify the team in advance if unable to meet a deadline and propose a new one.
- Respect: Respect all ideas and contributions.
- Communication: Keep communication open and clear.
- Teamwork: Help all team members regardless of role.

5. Specific Team Member Responsibilities

- Leader:
  - Leads meetings.
  - Coordinates with TA.
  - Works on keeping up with GitHub repo organization.
- Designer:
  - Creates and presents design concepts.
  - Seeks feedback on designs.
  - Works on design-related tasks.
- Developer:
  - Works on coding tasks.
  - Participates in code reviews.
  - Collaborates with the team on coding challenges.
- Planner/Project Manager:
  - Takes meeting notes.
  - Manages project timeline and tasks.
  - Updates project board and issue tracker.

6. Conflict Resolution

- Group project conflicts should be resolved by group vote. Personal conflicts should be resolved privately, with a leader as a mediator if needed.
- If conflicts reach a point where they cannot be resolved with the team leads, a meeting should be setup with the TA.
